

Four Sites 'Recommended' for Junior College

Unofficial Report Issued by State After Survey

An "unofficial" report from the state division of School House Planning today listed four acceptable sites for the College of the Desert, ending months of research on possible locations for the new desert area junior college.

The Coachella Valley Junior College District Board of Trustees is now expected to select one of the four recommended locations as their junior college site.

BUT, CAUTIONED district administrative assistant Gail Brumwell, "it may be some time before the site is chosen."

"The board must check with property owners before they pick the site they want," Brumwell explained, pointing out that negotiations on property sales could delay the final decision.

State officials selected the four sites after careful study of some 40 prospective locations — including some offered "free" to the district.

THE FOUR SITES rated as "acceptable" by the state follow in order of their state ratings, the first being the site rated as most desirable:

—Site 18, located at Indian Wells Cove, including Sections 24 and 25, T3S, R6E, just west of Washington Avenue and directly south of Highway 111 on the east approach to Palm Desert.

—Site 40, located one-quarter mile north of Avenue 40 (Country Club Drive), on Rio Del Sol Road, on the north three-quarters of the west half of Section 6, T3S, R6E, behind Rancho Mirage.

—Site 36, located at the southeast quarter of Section 22, T3S, R6E, just south of Highway 111 and east of Palm Desert.

—Site 7, located one-half mile north of Highway 111 on Monterey Road in Palm Desert area, or the west half of the southwest quarter and the west half of the east half of the southwest quarter, Section 17, T3S, R6E.

SELECTIONS WERE based on a number of factors, including population centers, accessibility, size and shape, topography, elevation and environment.

In issuing the report, state officials pointed out that "this report does not represent official approval of any state, as required by law."

Brumwell explained that the list merely identifies acceptable sites.

HE SAID the governing board of the district can now select one of the four and issue a special request for official approval from Dr. Darrell Slocum, of the School House Planning division's Los Angeles office.

But this is largely a matter of form. Since the state has marked the sites "acceptable," official approval of the board selection is expected to follow without lengthy deliberation.

The state's selections were bound up in a lengthy document which minutely explained the reasons for acceptance and rejection of sites and the machinations involved.

ALL FACTORS involved in selection were graded on a basis of one to four points, one point being the highest and four the lowest.

The site having the lowest total points was therefore the prime state choice.

In this respect, the first choice may have a low rating on accessibility but may rank high in location and environment, or other factors, making it the most desirable from an overall point of view.

One interesting aspect of the state report was a forecast of future population for desert area communities — as computed by the Los Angeles Bureau of Municipal Research.

A POPULATION TABLE indicated that in 1980 Palm Springs will count 35,000 citizens while the Palm Desert-Cathedral City area will have 54,000.

Indio is expected to increase to 20,000, Coachella to 6,500, Desert Hot Springs to 17,500 and unincorporated Coachella Valley areas to 42,000.

Another point of interest was the state School House Planning division's recommendation that the college board select two, or possibly even three, college sites.

The state suggested that the board consider a site centrally located and one at either end of the valley to accommodate future populations.

However, Brumwell said, this suggestion was largely discounted by the local board.

"WE'RE MAINLY interested in selecting one centrally located site for immediate development," he said. "Anything else comes under the heading of 'very long range' planning."

The board, he said, will view the state report tonight, but no actions are expected until negotiations are completed with property owners.

Brumwell didn't indicate whether the board would agree with the state's suggestion to seek more than the original 120 acres desired. The state feels that the price of land "is one of the least important factors" in development of the junior college.

Industry Asks Delay of Strike

NEW YORK (UPI) — Steel labor and management were down to the wire today in their deadlocked contract negotiations.

The 171-man Wage Policy Committee of the United Steelworkers of America assembled to debate an industry proposal for an indefinite postponement of a scheduled strike of 500,000 workers at midnight Tuesday.

Industry's proposal, advanced by R. Conrad Cooper, executive vice president of the U.S. Steel Corp., was regarded in some sources as virtually a 24-hour ultimatum to the union.

Canton Flood Threat Increased

HONG KONG (UPI) — Flood threats at Canton, a city of 1,500,000 in Communist China, were intensified today when thunder storms dumped additional rains into already swollen rivers converging on the area.

Appeals Fail

Mass Killer Goes Calmly to Death

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI) — Charles Starkweather, red-haired confessed slayer of 11 persons, went calmly to his death in Nebraska's electric chair early today.

Five charges of electricity were pumped into the body of the 20-year-old killer who committed 10 knife and rifle slayings in a bloody reign of terror in January of 1958. He later admitted an 11th slaying.

DR. P. E. GETSHER pronounced the killer dead at 11:05 a.m. (p.d.t.), only four minutes after he walked into the chamber.

Ironically, Dr. B. A. Finkle, veteran prison physician, who was to have pronounced the killer dead, collapsed at the prison only minutes before the execution, and it was announced shortly after Starkweather's death that the doctor had died of an apparent heart attack. Finkle was in his 70's.

DR. GETSHER WAS joined in the death chamber at the last minute by Dr. George Lewis Jr., Lewis, hastily summoned after Finkle's collapse, entered the prison gates on the run at 2 a.m. The execution was not delayed.

Starkweather merely shook his head negatively when Deputy Warden John Greenholtz asked him whether he had a last statement. But earlier, he made an apparent attempt at humor when Greenholtz entered his cell to announce it was time to go.

"WHAT'S YOUR hurry?" Starkweather was quoted by the deputy warden.

Earlier in the evening, the slayer told a guard, "I had a feeling that tonight was the night."

Chest Plans Fund Drive In October

Agencies Receive 65 Per Cent of Quota; United Fund Out

Total for First 10 Months Top All Of Fiscal 1958

The Palm Springs Community Chest announced today that it plans an extensive fund campaign in October as a result of the discontinuance of the United Fund here.

The Chest, which represents six community groups — Welfare and Friendly Aid, Boys Club, Youth Center, Desert Museum, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts — said that funds acquired from the UF campaign here had provided the organizations with only about 65 per cent of the money required for annual operation.

THE DISCONTINUANCE of the UF in the Village for the period of at least one year — announced only yesterday — was also viewed by observers as the signal for "a barrage of other fund drives here — just the thing the United Fund was designed to stop."

The American Red Cross announced privately to Fund officials a month ago that it would conduct its own campaign here this fall or winter. Spokesmen for the ARC, which was already a major recipient of UF funds, were reported to have declared that the Red Cross could "get more money on its own."

Lester Selig, a winter resident of Palm Springs who summers at Banning, is president of the Village's Community Chest. He has already mapped preliminary plans for an October fund campaign here, it was announced.

IN ADDITION TO the Community Chest and Red Cross fund drives, however, villagers may also be "touched" for additional contributions in drives by other organizations eliminated in the discontinuance of the United Fund here. Included in this group are the Salvation Army, Arthritis Foundation, USO, Travelers Aid, Hearing Society and Palm Springs Safety Council.

At least two of those organizations have indicated that they will conduct their own campaigns for funds but it was assumed by observers that some of the groups will simply become inactive in Palm Springs.

PRETTY GLORIA NEIL—Miss Palm Springs, left, Palm Springs Municipal Airport yesterday morning in a private plane, with Roy Shreck at the controls. Arriving at Los Angeles Terminal in Burbank, Gloria was the center of attraction with her Palm Springs hat and specially designed "tote" bag which carried the inscription "Miss Palm Springs." Photographers, newsreel and TV cameras were on hand to record the arrival of the more than 50 girls who will take part in the Miss California Beauty Pageant this week, with finals to be held Saturday night at the Starlight Bowl in Burbank. Gloria was one of two girls who were interviewed over a state-wide TV hook-up at 5:45 last night. (Desert Sun Photo).

Scheduled Now for Friday Night

Delay Expected To Affect Floyd Patterson Most

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Floyd Patterson-Ingenar Johansson heavyweight title fight today was postponed from tonight to Friday night because of rain and wet grounds at Yankee Stadium.

"I consulted with the New York Boxing Commission and the people at Yankee Stadium," promoter Bill Rosenzohn said. "The infield was very muddy and in deference to the public we have postponed the bout until Friday night. If conditions remain the same, we will decide about the alternate date Friday."

THE POSTPONEMENT was announced two hours after the fighters had weighed-in, with the Swedish challenger holding a 14 pound advantage over champion Patterson. Johansson scaled 196 to Patterson's 182.

Patterson's poundage was his lowest since he became champion. He weighed 182½ the night he captured the vacant title by knocking out Archie Moore on Nov. 30, 1956. Floyd went that low again last month in his 11th round knockout of Britain's Brian London at Indianapolis.

THE POSTPONEMENT is expected to affect Patterson more than Johansson, because the champion requires extreme "sharpness" to do his best.

No additional weigh-in will be required within 48 hours, and after that it's up to the New York Athletic Commission.

Sales Tax Receipts Hit New Record

LANGFORD SAID the April tax receipts, reported by the state 90 days after collection, boosted the total tax take for the first 10 months of fiscal 1959 to $364,715.

The 10-month figure is $4,000 higher than tax collections for all 12 months of last year.

A BREAKDOWN of the city's tax tables shows that retail sales this April brought almost $8,000 more in taxes than April, 1958.

Next highest month for tax receipts was January, 1959, which brought $35,782 into city tax coffers.

Langford said that the city's total revenue for April was $83,238, following a $4,460 deduction for the county and a $1,437 charge for administration.

Two Village Couples Injured In Auto Accident

Two Palm Springs couples, traveling to their summer homes at Lake Minnetonka in Minnesota, were injured in an automobile accident near Minneapolis earlier this month, it was learned here today.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gerow, 420 Chino Drive, are in Abbott Hospital in Minneapolis, and probably will remain there for at least two more weeks. Mr. Gerow suffered a fractured collarbone and six broken ribs, and Mrs. Gerow suffered fractures of both collarbones and other injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keuchle, 649 North Patencia, suffered bruises but were not hospitalized.

NO ONE APPEARS AT BUDGET HEARING

Not one of Palm Springs 12,671 summer residents was present at the City Council meeting last night to question the preliminary budget for the coming year.

Mayor Frank Bogert opened the hearing on the proposed budget at 9:30 p.m., asked for comments from the audience, received none, and closed the hearing.

THE AMOUNT OF time elapsed was approximately a minute and a half.

The preliminary budget asks for a total of $2,791,240 to run the city government the next year. This is an increase of $11,054 over last year's total budget.

TUESDAY NIGHT the council met to go over the budget and ended by adding approximately $12,000 more to the closely trimmed operation funds of the city.

Tonight the council will meet in what it hopes will be the final budget meeting, to discuss the budgets of individual departments with administrative personnel.

Burglary Suspect Claims Lost Loot to Thief

A burglary suspect today admitted two petty thefts, but he couldn't come up with the loot — another thief stole it from him.

Detective Neal Green said he booked John Zagula, 28, of 1305 North Indian Avenue, on suspicion of burglary. Zagula admitted taking a pistol from his girl friend's apartment and a woman's bracelet from a Village night club.

But, Zagula told the officer, the pistol, the bracelet and his own clothing and luggage were taken by a man who gave him a lift to Carson City, Nev., after the two had enjoyed a gambling and drinking tour of that city.

Faubus Claims Live Ammunition 'Needed' This Fall

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI) — Gov. Orval Faubus said Wednesday the federal government would have to use "live ammunition" to force integration on Little Rock's four high schools this fall and he would do nothing to help quell possible mob violence.

Faubus, handed two recent setbacks in his fight to maintain segregation in Little Rock, said if the schools should be opened on an integrated basis in September, it would be forced by the federal government and would not be the will of the people.

Last month, Little Rock voters recalled segregationist members of the Little Rock school board and replaced them with "moderates." Last week, a three judge federal court threw out two 1958 Arkansas laws Faubus used to close the four Little Rock high schools and withheld state money from the school district.

School Budget To Be Viewed at Meeting Tonight

First public presentation of the new, preliminary school budget is scheduled for Thursday night's Board of Education meeting.

The board will review the district's weightiest budget at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, in the high school music room.

Other agenda items include consideration of a proposed salary schedule, involving pay increases, for school district administrative and supervisory personnel.

The board also plans to consider possible action for the acquisition of new school sites.

Plane Explosion Injures Four

NEW YORK (UPI) — A Trans World Airlines Super G Constellation exploded in front of its hangar at Idlewild Airport today, injuring four mechanics working inside the plane.

Eamon de Valera Takes Office

DUBLIN (UPI) — Guns boomed out a salute across the flag bedecked capital today as elder statesman Eamon de Valera took the oath of office as third president of the Irish Republic.

It was an historic occasion for Irishmen as they watched a great national leader step out of the political arena and into the nation's highest office.

The 77-year-old president elect, accompanied by his wife and escorted by an army motorcycle guard of honor, arrived to the cheers of the crowds lining the route.

All religious denominations held special services to celebrate the occasion.

Now in Italy

Satchmo in Coma, Condition 'Grave'

SPOLETO, Italy (UPI) — Louis (Satchmo) Armstrong lay in a coma today in "grave" condition with bronchial pneumonia complicated by heart trouble.

The famous American Negro jazz musician passed into unconsciousness after suffering a second relapse this morning.

DOCTORS KEPT HIM in an oxygen tent most of the time, and his breathing was reported to be labored.

A communique said he encountered one crisis about 2 a.m. His condition was reported as "stationary" five hours later, and he showed only "slight improvement" by mid-morning.

Three hours later, his condition took another turn for the worse and a hospital spokesman said at that time his condition was "grave."

THE 59-YEAR-OLD jazz trumpeter was stricken with bronchial pneumonia two days ago and was hospitalized.

He was reported well on the road to recovery Wednesday, when he joked with visitors.

But during the night, his condition became worse.

Armstrong's wife, Lucille, his manager and his doctor remained at his bedside during the morning.

The suddenly grave condition of the man who has been one of the United States' most popular ambassadors of good will abroad was in contrast to his bounce and cheerfulness Wednesday.

House Committee Rejects Request For 8 Shelters

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Appropriations Committee today rejected an administration request for $2,700,000 to build the first of eight proposed underground centers from which the government could operate in event of an enemy attack.

Overturning a subcommittee recommendation that Congress provide $4,000,000 to build two centers, the committee refused to provide anything for the program.

The proposed underground control centers, one in each region of the country, are part of a long range plan designed to enable the government to continue functioning on a decentralized basis in case of an attack on the United States.

Long Appeals: 'Pray Me Out of Mental Hospital'

BATON ROUGE, La. — (UPI) — Gov. Earl K. Long appealed to the people of Louisiana in a smuggled tape recording Wednesday night to pray him out of the mental hospital into which he said he was railroaded by his "jealous" wife and ambitious nephew, U.S. Sen. Russell B. Long.

Political observers speculated the colorful meandering stump-type speech, broadcast on radio stations throughout the state, might draw thousands of political supporters to the Covington Junior High School basketball court where Long will appear for a district court habeas corpus proceeding Friday.

HIS WIFE, MRS. Blanche Long, whom he bitterly accused of conspiring with his political enemies, fled the state Tuesday indicating she would make no further effort to force mental treatment on her husband. Friends said she believed he would be released at Friday's hearing and feared his alleged "homicidal tendencies."

The court will not rule on Long's sanity but on whether he was properly committed to the state hospital.

NEW ORLEANS radio station WNOE to which Long's attorney, Joe Arthur Sims, took the original recording, quoted the attorney as saying Long would prefer a sanity hearing "to enable him to refute charges that he suffers from mental instability."

The station also quoted him as saying that 15 doctors were being flown to the hearing by chartered plane.

Long said: "I feel certain that having a man like the Hon. Robert D. Jones of this district deciding my case that I'll be a free man Friday."

Judge Jones had been asked earlier if he could be described as a "Long man" politically. He replied: "I want to make it quite emphatic that whatever political affiliations I may have will never go over into my court."

PHYSICAL THERAPIST ADDED TO STAFF OF ANGEL VIEW CLINIC

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Because of an unprecedented increase in crippled children seeking aid, the Angel View Crippled Children's Hospital here has added a part-time physical therapist to its present staff.

The Desert Hot Springs facility announced today that Marian Popp, a physical therapist of Palm Springs, will work at the hospital on three afternoons each week.

She will augment the work done by Louise Bickmore, regular physical therapist at the hospital.

In Duluth

Runaway Grain Truck Kills Three

DULUTH, Minn. — (UP) — A loaded grain truck ran wild last night down a steep, curving skyline drive, careened into an automobile, then jumped a curb and plowed through three homes.

Its rampage left three persons dead, four others injured, three houses virtually destroyed and the truck and automobile demolished.

POLICE FOUND parts of the truck's transmission two and one-half miles up the scenic drive from the spot where the vehicle, its load of oats scattered, finally lunged to a halt partially inside the third home it hit.

Officers said truck driver Ralph Redlin, 50, of Ellendale, N. D., apparently lost the transmission when he tried to shift down to brake at a sign warning: "Trucks shift into lower gear."

THE BODIES OF Redlin and his wife, Ruby, 34, were found inside the telescoped truck when it was pulled from a gaping hole in the home of Earl T. Hayes.

Motorist Roy Cich, 26, of Superior, Wis., was found dead amid the wreckage of his car a half block away from the row of homes on Duluth's west side.

Rueben Widell, 44, and his wife, Lucille, 42, who lived in the second house hit by the berserk truck, were pinned under a caved in wall of their home. Mrs. Widell was buried under a pile of oats with only her nose and eyes visible, and neighbors helped an ambulance crew dig her out.

MRS. WIDELL WAS reported in poor condition at St. Mary's Hospital with a back injury and broken ribs. Her husband was reported less seriously hurt.

When the truck ripped through the Widells' living room, it hurled the outer wall of the house against Hayes' automobile next door, shoving the car 30 feet into a garage and sending a barrel flying through a window of the Hayes home.

The barrel hit Mrs. Ruth Hayes, 61, and knocked her several feet. Hayes, 63, suffered a cut arm as the truck crashed into their living room from the rear.

"MY WIFE AND I were watching television," he said. "I heard a tremendous roar and all of a sudden the truck crashed right through the side of the house and stopped there."

Two families in the first house escaped injury.

Police said the first two houses struck were "almost a total loss" and the third was severely damaged.

Ambulance attendant Swanson said he was at his street-side station with his partner, Paul Stopnik, when "we heard the roar and ran outside."

"ALL I COULD see was dust as the truck came rolling through at about 60 miles an hour," he said. "Then we heard it hit the car and the houses. We ran to the scene and neighbors already were trying to lift the house wall where the Widells were trapped."

Dick Gottschald of radio station WECB said "None of the pieces of Cich's car was any bigger than a telephone book."

Prisoner Hurt As 16-Hour Riot Ended, Succumbs

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. — (UP) — A prisoner hurt when lawmen crushed a 16-hour riot in the homosexual wing of the U.S. Medical Center died Wednesday night of a fractured skull.

He was Richard Smith of Salt Lake City, a 24-year-old inmate serving seven years for threatening to kill or harm the President of the United States.

Meanwhile, Warden Russell O. Settle said he is in no hurry to take action against the ringleaders of the riot. He said he and his staff have found no rational explanation for the outbreak.

Smith was injured when 100 officers stormed the wing where 106 homosexual and mental patients held five guards captive with knives at their throats. It was not made clear how Smith was injured; whether by officers in the attack force, by another prisoner, or by accident.

Knudsen Wins National Award For Advertising

The Milk Industry Foundation "First National Award" for advertising excellence was presented to Knudsen Creamery Co. this week at a special program held as part of the weekly meeting of the Los Angeles Advertising Club.

Th. R. Knudsen, chairman of the board for the creamery, accepted the award which was presented by John B. Long, general manager of the California Newspaper Publishers Association.

THE PRESENTATION marked the third consecutive year in which Knudsen Creamery Co. has been honored with the award. The recognition is made annually by the Milk Foundation for the most outstanding newspaper advertising of dairy products in the United States.

The advertising entries on which the award was based were prepared by the creamery's advertising agency Heintz & Co., of Los Angeles and San Francisco. The advertising emphasized the use of four colors, which was pioneered by the Heintz agency.

FOLLOWING THE award ceremony a specially prepared film covering "60 Years in Advertising" was shown to the more than 200 guests and members of the ad club who attended the meeting.

The film traced the growth and change in Southern California advertising methods since the turn of the century and spotlighted early newspaper ads of many Los Angeles companies that are still prominent in business today.

The audio-visual program was prepared and arranged by Heintz & Co.

Council Disagrees on Name For New Municipal Course

Palm Springs' municipal golf course will just have to do without an official name until the next session of the City Council.

City Manager Dan Wagner last night recommended to the council that the official name of the course be Palm Springs Golf Course, but Councilman Leonard Wolf expressed the opinion that the word "municipal" or "city" should be included.

"I can't understand why the council is objecting to using a designation of 'municipal' in the title of the golf course," said Wolf, "as almost every city does use it."

Councilman John Wood, pointing out that many places do not use municipal or city in their title, indicated that he was sure people would know that the course was a public one.

Councilwoman Ruth Hardy moved that the matter be tabled until Councilman George Beebe, chairman of the Citizens Golf Committee, could return and enter into the discussion on the golf course name.

EACH DEPARTMENT of the school will present samples of its 7:30 p.m., Friday, in the church sanctuary.

The beginners department, supervised by Mrs. Betty Schroeder, will present songs and memory work. Youngsters in the primary department, supervised by Mrs. Pauline Smith, will present four basic verses of scripture entitled "Keys to the Castle."

THE JUNIOR department will present its studies in the form of "rooms of the castle" in comparison to various areas of living. Concluding the program, the junior high school department will construct the tabernacle and explain its study of it through the scripture.

Several of the winter tenants of Prairie Schooner Park are spending most of the summer there. These include the George Lafayettes, the Virgil Rockholds, the Kirk Vints, Arsene Beruhes, the Don Hagens, the Wally Peters, Phil Noeragers, the Howard Johnsons, P. B. Holdridges, the Hal Barnetts and son, Pete, Harold Oppermans and their daughter, Zofie, and her daughter, Kathy, the Howard Fullers and daughter Susan, and Pete and Paul Burke. Most of these folks are locally employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Millett plan to leave in July for a visit with their son in Rio de Janeiro.

MRS. MARY ROCKHOLD has been called for jury duty in Indio.

A caravan consisting of three travel trailers and the Selwyn outboard cruiser have just returned from a ten-day vacation at Lake Havasu on the Colorado River. In the party were Merle and Betty Williams, M. F. and Ludy Selwyn and Bernice Richardson who was accompanied by her 6-year-old grandson.

AN OLD FASHIONED birthday party picnic for Sunowners, their friends and guests has been scheduled at Bixby Park in Long Beach at 2 p.m., July 19. Reservations have been made for a party of 100 people and over half of that number have already signified their intention of attending.

Helen Diebenow, Charles Pitman, David Cromwell and "Ginger" Abbott have birthdays falling on that weekend.

Tramview

O. L. Parkhurst, new manager at Tramview Trailer Park, is one of the busiest men in the Palm Springs area these days. Getting acquainted with his many duties as park manager, he is in constant consultation with Robert C. Duncan, AIA, and associates and Alfred I. Switzer, their engineer-in-charge of the $250,000 expansion program that is projected to begin immediately upon completion of planning.

Changes and additions planned are a complete renovation of the present recreation building which will be converted for a hobby and dancing center. Construction will begin immediately on a 20 by 40 swimming pool of the latest design and it is hoped that the ground breaking ceremony for the new 32' by 80' social center can be staged before Aug. 1.

Within the week, Parkhurst reports that space has been leased to three new tenants who are bringing new 10-wide trailers, 48, 50 and 55 feet in length.

Rancho Park

The entire maintenance crew at Rancho is very busy these days preparing for the forthcoming season. Streets are being repaved, new gas lines are being installed and many major and minor painting projects are under way in anticipation of the grand opening of the 1959-60 season in October.

Square dancing will again be one of the major recreation activities at Rancho during the coming winter. Dances have been scheduled at 8 p.m., every Wednesday. Kenny Young of Riverside has been engaged to do the calling.

Sage and Sand

Don Cramer, owner and manager of Sage and Sand Trailer Park, is investigating the feasibility of constructing a new system of roads and erecting an up-to-date recreation building. At present he is busy with the regular maintenance job that every park is faced with at this time of the year.

Major and Mrs. Wiles and their two children, whose present home is in London, England, are visiting the major's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Dunham.

Dear Abby...

... by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: Most of our relatives live in the city but we live on a farm. We make a decent living but our relatives feel that since we live in the country and have five kids we are real hard up or something. They keep sending their children's worn-out clothes to us. They don't fit our kids and aren't decent enough to wear anywhere.

I unpacked a mess of these old rags this morning and just took them out and burned them. Should we write to them and tell them to quit sending us boxes or just keep quiet? The stuff they send not worth the postage.

COUNTRY SISTER

DEAR SIS: Write your relatives and thank them but suggest that they give their boxes or (don't say "worn-out" — say "outgrown") clothing to a local rummage sale or charity.

DEAR ABBY: A girl who works in our office has a PAST... and I mean a real PAST. She started out young and has really been through the mill. And she's not ashamed to tell people about it. She is very popular with the men because she tells them dirty stories. Everyone says she is a "good sport" and her past hasn't seemed to have hurt her. In fact, I think it helps. I wonder if it wouldn't pay me to get a past? NO PAST DEAR NO: Don't envy a girl with a past. She attracts only men who are hanging around in the hope that history will repeat itself.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have been married four years. He is 25 and I am 24. We have four wonderful children. We have never had a honeymoon or vacation together. We take the children everywhere we go.

This summer my mother, who lives in another state, wants to take the children for two weeks.

Am I being unfair for wanting to go some place without the children?

My husband thinks we should spend our vacation with our children. I love the children but, Abby, I could sure use a two-week rest. I'd appreciate your opinion.

KIND OF TIRED
DEAR TIRED: Everyone needs a vacation without the children occasionally. It's good for the parents, and good for the children. By all means, accept your mother's generous offer.

DEAR ABBY: Get a load of this: I am too young to wear nylon stockings or heels or lipstick but I am old enough to do the dishes, make beds and stay with my seven-year-old brother. I am too young to go to a night movie with a girlfriend but I am old enough to go to the store after dark for lunch meat my mother forgot to get. One minute I am a "child" and the next minute I am an "adult." What am I supposed to be anyway? I am 12 years old.

DON'T KNOW
DEAR DONT: You are "supposed to be" a child who is learning to accept adult responsibility. Maturity is being able to face up to your responsibility without grumbling. Patience.

CONFIDENTIAL TO GERTRUDE: The "candle-light" routine will never work. What he needs is a hotfoot!

"Why don't my parents trust me?" For What Every Teenager Wants To Know, send 25c and a large, stamped, self-addressed envelope to ABBY, care of this paper.

Adoption Of State Water Plan Tops Achievements Of 1959 Legislature

The State Legislature has just concluded one of its most productive sessions in California's century long history of law-making.

Not only was the total number of bills passed, and signed, in excess of the last previous session, but several of the actions taken were of the weightiest consequences in terms of lasting statewide significance.

What will make the 1959 session long remembered as one of monumental achievement was the final ending of the decade of deadlock between the North and South in the Legislature and the passage of a stupendously important State Water Plan.

As a result of this signal agreement the people of California will have an opportunity to vote on the constitutional measure to implement its construction at the next general State election in November of 1960.

There is little doubt of overwhelming public approval for a program which even though it will require years to construct and cost some billions of dollars, will eventually result in a complete statewide network of canals and power plants providing extensive and adequate water and power to supply all sections of California for generations to come. Proper water supply and distribution are in fact a mandatory necessity in view of California's burgeoning population and relief can not be too soon in arriving.

Second significant result of the recent session was the tremendous increase in tax levies to greatly increase income. Due to a combination of inflation and zooming population, the State's reserve surplus had reached the vanishing point in recent years. To balance the budget and provide for increased costs, the largest tax hikes in California history were adopted and passed on to consumers and several brackets of general taxpayers. Thus another controversy was resolved albeit with "painful" consequences to the payers.

And, for better or for worse, more bills than usual were passed through the legislative hopper. At the close of the session Governor Brown had signed 1,109 measures and vetoed 28 as compared to 1,069 signed and 23 vetoed by former Governor Knight at the previous session. And approximately 1,000 additional bills still awaited the signature of Governor Brown prior to the end of the 30-day "pocket veto" period.

All in all, Governor Brown as the prime mover of the State Water Plan and the Legislature both turned in records of exceptional achievement, one which on the whole will go down in the archives as a banner session of accomplishment for a bigger and better California.

The German Future

HOME - BOUND FROM EUROPE - So artificial, so unnatural, so absurd is the partitioning of Germany into East and West "republics" that the visitor is forced to think - "This can't last much longer."

An American officer innocently asked: "How come they placed the city of Hof so close to the border?" A German replied: "Why did they place the border so close to Hof? The city is much older than the border." He could have added that the cities, provinces, language, culture, and character of the German nation are here to stay - and the arbitrary zoning under Western and Communist control is not.

CHILDREN IN THE border towns romp between the frowning battle lines of East and West, or suspend their games and stand with mute curiosity (but no admiration) as the military inspection parties make their rounds. The parents of these children drive their cars on business and pleasure back and forth across the dividing lines, with a show of papers to the frontier guards of East and West. A group of state miners, who have been at their grimy but respectable job for generations, live in the West but work in the East.

It's my guess that one of these days the natural is going to assert its superiority over the unnatural, the logical over the illogical, the hearts and customs of people over the heads and shenanigans of statesmen.

IN THE LONG PULL, unless I am more wrong than usual, Germany is going to unify for the fundamental reason that Germany is indivisible. Not many pulls in human affairs are stronger than the magnetism of a nation for its integrity.

Much of the Old Testament tells the story of a race that proved itself indestructible. There are a dozen modern examples - Ireland, Poland, Israel, Pakistan, the South - which show that the cohesive, never-say-die spirit of kinship in peoples will not yield to the knot of tyrants or the fix-it propensities of world reformers, East or West.

GERMANY WILL unite, never fear, and the forces of reunion are so homely, so incorporated within human nature, that they are hard to see and even harder to name. It is only presumption and intellectual arrogance on the part of statesmen and military conquerors which make them tell us that they—and not God—decide national matters. In his surpassing masterpiece, "War and Peace," Tolstoy finds that the titanic struggle for Europe in the Napoleonic era finally turned upon the destiny of humble peasants and soldiers, and not upon the brilliant plans of the generals whose orders, in any event, were usually thwarted or disobeyed.

THE SAME IS bound to come true in Germany again. The Russians do not belong there, and neither do we. At the moment the Russians are strong enough to resist our will to oust them, even if we dared try it. And the Western powers, led by the Americans, are too strong to be driven backwards by the Russians, who also do not dare risk a nuclear war.

But the force which will send the Russians home, and us home is growing in the German children whose grannies, perhaps, live across the border, and in the German farmers, miners and merchants, to whom the border is too much of a nuisance to last.

ANOTHER AND almost indefinable spirit broods over Germany and will make itself known. It is a spirit which I doubtless millions of other Americans have felt in visiting our own sacred battlefields, such as Gettysburg. Men who have known the sustained shock of battle are able to write about it better than those of us who have, like myself, known only a little or none at all.

To explain something about Germany, the death place and battleground of so many nationalities here is a magnificent passage from R. W. Thompson's history called "Battle for the Rhine." He says, in describing an assault by British - Canadian troops upon German positions:

"NO REWARDS OF peace could have induced men to this patience, to this readiness for incessant effort, to labor till they dropped, to live in mud, and often to sleep in it, to live upon biscuit and bully beef . . . above all, to die, to crawl over wire and mines to drag back some person unknown, to share a last cigarette . . ."

"It was - and is - a miracle . . . a platitude of war . . . a phenomenon, perhaps of human perversity, perhaps a pointer to the possibility of human greatness . . . a vision as unattainable as the Holy Grail, proving what might be."

Well, the German soil and peoples have known this searing experience, and I take it to be one of the incalculable factors in events that are forming today, and are still to come.

Linguistic Larceny

CHICAGO (UPI) — The thief who stole two typewriters from a gift shop on the Northwest Side Wednesday may have to brush up on his languages to make crime pay. The typewriters are made for the Ukrainian alphabet.

Earned Her Stardom

BURBANK, Calif. (UPI) — Star of the show at the Valley Chapter of the Mothers of Twins Inc. picnic yesterday was Mrs. Mona Schmunck, 35, mother of one set of four-year-old twins, one set of five-year-old twins and one set of two-year-old triplets.

Turtles Incognito

CHICKSBURG, Miss. (UPI) — The anonymity of turtles won Ernest Gildewell Jr. his freedom Wednesday. Gildewell was freed of a grand larceny charge in the theft of 589 baby turtles valued at 10 cents each from Kermit Aldridge when the state admitted it would be impossible to tell whether turtles in Gildewell's possession were those taken from Aldridge.

No Humor in Sharks

SANTA CRUZ, Calif. (UPI) — Two Sunnyvale men were arrested Wednesday for taking a humorously macabre approach to the threat of man-eating sharks in California's coastal waters. Roger Lejeunesse, 21, and Harvey L. Stovall, 23, were taken into custody for erecting 36 signs along the oceanfront reading: "Please do not feed the sharks."

Revolving Robber

NEW YORK (UPI) — Miss Monserate Roman, 27, told police a man jumped into a revolving door subway turnstile with her Tuesday night, and took $6 from Isn't That Ridiculous?

ANAMOSA, Iowa (UPI) — Friday and Saturday have been designated "ridiculous days" in Anamosa. The Chamber of Commerce, which named them, said they'll be devoted to "ridiculous" bargains in all stores.

A Silver Lining

LONDON (UPI) — Jim Scott got his stolen car back Tuesday with a new coat of paint, new bumpers, de-dented fenders and a reconditioned engine. Scott's five-year-old car apparently was abandoned in a London square by whomsoever stole it. A garage man mistook it for the one he had been ordered to pick up, in the same square, for the renovation job.

Reckless drivers
Who dote on speed
Won't take the time
Warnings to read.

Here goes one man's opinion again.

NOTED WITH INTEREST in The Desert Sun an account of discussion over erection of a sign at the north city entrance. The dimensions of the proposed sign put it into the billboard class.

There is a growing tendency to eliminate billboards on state highways and a proposition to that effect may be on the 1960 state ballot.

THE ARGUMENT is that signs distract the attention of drivers. Certainly something must be done to reduce the growing accident toll on Highway 111 north of town. But I don't think a sign asking motorists to "Drive Safely" is it.

Drivers who are inclined to recklessness won't heed it — if they read it — and will proceed on the theory that the sign is for the other fellow.

IF THEY ARE GOING to throw aesthetics out of the window as advocated at the council meeting, why not just a big red sign, "Danger"?

Or, better yet, a "sign" that all reckless and speeding drivers will heed — park a police car there.

Sight of a police car always has a decelerating effect on traffic.

IF CHIEF KETTMAN can't spare the man-power, there really doesn't have to be anybody in the car.

Just the presence of the black and white car with the red light on top will have a salutary effect.

The cheaters will think there is an officer in the vicinity.

Well, as I said, that's one man's opinion.

SPEAKING OF MISHAPS and fatalities, a brand new field for tragedies has been opened in the nation — the boating craze. To the few hundred of experienced boaters who know the water and the rules, have been added thousands of novice pilots bounding over the water in high-powered craft without an idea of what it's all about.

YOU DON'T NEED to pass a driver's license test to crank up and let 'er skim.

And, as to be expected, boating has attracted the reckless horde, too. On the highways, they're the hot rudders, on the water, the hot rudders.

On land, their crazy antics do not affect a driver 100 yards away. But on the water, the wake from their crazy maneuvers has already, this season, swamped many a craft with some loss of life.

AM THINKING, what's coming?

For years the unsafe and reckless autoists.

Now the reckless power-boat pilots.

And I was just reading that it won't be long before the air is full of private planes. From hot-rod, to hot rudders to hot props — or even jets, yet.

Every home will have to have its own private cyclone cellar.

STAN DELAPLANE'S
Postcard

We address you from Bear Creek, 8,000 feet up in the High Sierra. Camping out. Tuning in with Nature comes in on an expensive wave length these days. On the way through Big Pine I stopped at a sporting goods store.

"I am taking a couple of children camping. What do I need?"

The storekeeper looked pleased.

"WHAT DO YOU HAVE?" he asked. "You have an ax? A shovel? Sleeping bags? Camp-Pak dehydrated food?"

"No. We have nothing but stout hearts. Storekeeper. Stout hearts and the spirit of pioneers."

"Excuse me a minute," said the storekeeper. He went to the back room and telephoned. "I could hear him faintly through the door. 'I think you can get that mink coat after all, Mother,' he said."

"NOW," SAID THE storekeeper briskly. "You must have the dehydrated food. Stews so delicious they melt in your mouth. Yet it weighs a pittance."

The stew came in a brown paper sack. It told how you added water and all of a sudden, presto! You poured in out. Coq au vin.

"Couldn't I just buy food from the grocery store?"

"Why that would be cheating, wouldn't it?" said the storekeeper. "Now a nice sharp ax. Here is, one imported from Italy."

"WE JUST INTENDED to pick up a few pieces of wood from the ground," I said timidly. "Or maybe rent a tree, limb from limb."

"Everybody has an ax," he replied sharply. "What are you going to wear on your belt?"

"My pants, Storekeeper."

"You should wear an ax, a compass and a whopping big hunting knife. Else," said the storekeeper, "how will people know you are a camper."

I had never thought of it that way. I want people to think well of me. I bought it all.

"NOW TO THE fishing," said the sporting goods man.

"You must have rods and reels. Files and fly-tieing equipment. And a handy little box to put them in. The box floats," he said, "in case you fall in the lake."

"I just thought I would cut a few poles. These children do not know the difference."

The storekeeper looked disappointed in me. But he was brave about it. He sold me a shovel. It was an excellent buy. My 4-year-old boy dug a cunning hole that I fell into that night.

THE STOREKEEPER sold me a compass. He sold me some hooks and some sinkers and a patent bobber that lands the fish for you.

"You wouldn't want an outboard motor, would you?"

"I have no boat, Storekeeper."

"I could order one from Los Angeles."

I said no thanks. He implored me to purchase a gun, a hacksaw, a folding tent and a pack saddle. But I was firm.

"TOP UP THE nudge, Storekeeper," I said. "For we are anxious to be out in the Great Outdoors. Sniffing the mountain breeze and the heady smell of wood smoke. And a trout frying in the pan."

"We have a nice pack of dehydrated trout with lemon dressing. Add a little water and —"

"I shall catch my own in my own wily way."

"Mosquito repellent?"

I BOUGHT SOME repellent. He urged a few lengths of rope on me. In case I wanted to hang clothing. Or myself. We bought a desert water bag.

It was expensive. But worth every dime of it. When we went down the street, clanking with cups and knives and axes and compasses at our belt. People in Big Pine really stopped and stared.

"There goes a Camper," I imagine they said. It costs money. But how else can they know what you really are.

GRIN AND BEAR IT
By LICHTY

"Forget that nonsense and get back to your husband, dear! . . . At one time or another ALL married men say they want to go to the Moon!"

EARL WILSON:

A New Generation, a New Frankie

NEW YORK — Frankie Avalon gets 1,000 letters a week telling him he has the greatest tonsils since Frank Sinatra — and though he's only 13, many female fans say they're deeply in love with him.

"Dear Frankie" said one letter he just received. "I'm madly in love with you. It's not only for today. It's for always. People say it's just infatuation, but it's a sincere lasting love. I think of you all the time. I am 10 years old."

Frankie laughed, telling this at Toots Shor's.

"You know how old the fans are today?" he asked. "Seven, eight, nine years old. They're little kids, they say 'Mommy, buy me this record.' When I get a haircut in Philadelphia they make by barber so nervous I'm afraid he'll cut my ear off. They run in and grab my hair as it falls off his scissors!"

Frankie's already toured Australia, made a movie co-starring with Alan Ladd, and makes his third appearance June 28 with Ed Sullivan — and he has a Thunderbird.

"White?" I asked him quickly as the young man finished off his second ham-and-cheese sandwich.

"Red! Bright red. The kids wrecked it. They took off the license plate, the rear view mirror, all my hub caps. They write on the car with lipstick. My father gets sick when he sees a little scratch, and he said 'This car's in the shop more than it's out due to those kids.'"

Frankie had a bad experience with some older fans in Milwaukee.

Three girls waited outside his hotel room about midnight. He and his manager finally asked them in. They said they were 17.

Frankie suggested they go home. "Pretty soon about eight detectives came in," Frankie said.

"They said 'How old are you?' to the girls. They admitted they were 13. Milwaukee has a curfew and they were violating it. I was terribly worried about that."

"Next morning at the theater, there were the three girls down in front, waving at me."

Frankie offered me a cigarette. "Sinatra's brand," he said. He met Sinatra in Honolulu and is overwhelmed with the prospect that he might do a movie playing Sinatra's son.

"I guess the only place a famous singer is safe now is singing," I said.

"Not even there," Frankie said. "My mother hated to hear me, she's afraid the kid'll grab me."

"In Scranton, I was singing 'Don't You Step on My White Buck Shoes.' I put my foot out and the kids pulled me right off the stage. Three cops came and grabbed me and took me away."

"Lots of times, three or four cops are on stage right in front of me while I'm singing—pushing the kids back!" he said.

The South Will Rise Again

HOLLYWOOD — Don't spend your Confederate money — the South will rise again. John Wayne will stage the world premiere of his Civil War movie, "The Horse Soldiers," in Shreveport, La. As part of the celebration, the Shreveport Chamber of Commerce has arranged for a sham battle among the citizenry in which the town's Johnny Rebs will win at Newton Station — instead of Wayne's Boys in Blue.

It's official. Rock'n-roll is on the way out. Tommy Sands has traded the Rock for the Resin, with 18 fiddles backing up his bleating in his new nightclub act.

MAE CLARKE, famous as the gal Jimmy Cagney clobbered over the breakfast table in an old Warner movie, tells me it'll be a while yet before she writes her life story. "After all, Cinderella had a pumpkin," says Mae, "but all I had was a grapefruit."

United Artists borrowed John Gavin from Universal for "Ripe Fruit," with Tony Mann directing. Tony's wife, Sarita Montiel, plucks a ripe part in the same picture. What's it about? Well, John plays the GI who returns to his dad's ranch after World War II to find the household gone to pot, so his dad sets it up for him to marry the mortgage-holder's daughter, even though John's in love with Senorita Sarita. So then John — oh, write your own plot.

Arthur Loew, Jr., grandson of Marcus Loew, co-founder of MGM, no longer occupies a director's chair at that studio. But Artie's out to show 'em — he is directing a Little Theatre production of Meade Roberts' play, "A Palm Tree in the Rose Garden," for Hollywood's Stage Society. It's about a has-been movie actress who pushes her daughter into the stardom she herself never achieved.

PARAMOUNT IS having its troubles converting Broadway's outspoken "World of Suzie Wong" into a movie script that will be acceptable to the censors. On top of which the studio has signed Jack Clayton, director of this year's most outspoken movie, "Room at the Top," to steer "Suzie" too.

Ginny Simms and the Bonaires are recording an LP album of drinking songs from the "Student Prince" drinking song to "One for the Road." It's titled "Under the Table with Ginny Simms and the Bonaires."

CHANNEL CHATTER—You'd better not believe all that baloney about TV's new comedy sensations, Ford and Hines, being an "overnight success," per their publicity handouts. I first encountered the team toiling together three Yuletides ago in The Last Chance Saloon in Alaska — and THAT was their fourth year as a duo!

THE WARNER - TV brass really meant it when they said they were going all-out for new, young talent. In addition to Chicagoan Bob Conrad and Connie ("Kookie") Stevens, the studio's new Hawaiian Eye series will co-star a Mexican lad named Ponce Ponce (repeat: Ponce Ponce, as in cha-cha) as a regular. Studio scouts found him at Ben Blue's Santa Monica nightclub, not onstage but in the kitchen, where he was a busboy.

Big Crosby's controversial employee, Tom Duggan (the work for Bing's LA station, KOOP) is taping his shows for syndication cross-country. And through his own syndicate, Duggo Enterprises.

Bing is also preparing a television series titled Lincoln Jones. His pal Joe Gershenson is writing the musical score for the pilot film free — cuffo — and — por — nada — but only after Bing (who can be a tight guy with a buck) agreed to let Joe write all the music if and when the series is sold.

THEY'RE SHOOTING the current Riverboat segment in black-and-white but gueststar Debra Paget will be black-&-blue at the rate she's going: three strenuous dance routines after her medico told her no dancing at all following her cook-out in Las Vegas.

Shirley Booth as the mother, Joanne Woodward and Paul Newman as her children — the "Glass Menagerie" roles originated in Chicago by Laurette Taylor, Julie Hayden and Eddie Dowling: that's what DuPont has up its plastic sleeve for one of this fall's Big Ones.

George Gobel says an adult Western is one where the hero leaves the saloon every hour to put another nickel in the parking meter.

Board Delays Decision on Forest Plan

Petition Opposes
Opening of Closed
Mountain Area

The Board of Supervisors, faced with overwhelming opposition to the opening of the closed Thomas Mountain forest area, reached no decision this week and continued discussion of the matter to next Monday, June 29 at 11 a. m.

A.H. Nightingale presented the board with a petition bearing more than 275 signatures of property owners and residents of the San Jacinto and Santa Rosa mountain areas, expressing opposition to the proposed closed area release. "I could easily have obtained 5,000 signatures from interested people," he said.

"WE FEEL WE'VE been forsaken," said Nightingale. "This area has been closed over 20 years and this year, the driest in years, it is to be opened."

The petition stated that "new fires would have a disastrous effect on watershed adjoining Hemet reservoir, besides endangering investments." The use of controlled brush burning and initiation of a program of recreational development for the area was urged as a precedent to its opening for public use.

IN ADDITION TO the voluminous petition, the supervisors were faced with considerable vocal opposition, and with a letter from the Lake Hemet Municipal Water District requesting the board to reconsider its action of May 25 in which it acceded to a request by Forest Ranger John Gilman that the county open up an area of private land in order that it be opened simultaneously with the 12,000 acres of forestry land which is set for July 1.

Gilman was on hand to explain the reasons for the action already taken by the Regional Forest Service which he said culminated more than four years of preparation. When it was obvious that his explanations made no impression on the hostile audience, Gilman observed that the county is powerless to prevent the forest service from opening the large acreage and can only keep closed the small privately owned acreage of which there is only approximately 1,900 acres of which 1,770 is the Garner Ranch property, the opening of which has been approved by its owners.

EVEN IF THE small acreage over which the Board of Supervisors has control is kept closed, Gilman said the large forestry acreage behind it would be opened, unless the forestry service changes its plans.

"I believe the opposition should be directed at the U. S. Regional Forest Service," said Gilman. "The issue is before the wrong body."

Gilman's only support in the face of this week's opposition came from Gerald V. Weber of Mountain Center. "I believe our property would be better protected with the area opened and patrolled than with it left closed," he said. "Also, I believe the forestry service organization knows what is best for protection of forest areas."

Rain Soaks N.Y. Stadium, Postpones Title Fight

FLOYD PATTERSON

24-Hour Delay for Battle; Floyd Odds Soar to 5-1

BULLETIN NEW YORK, N.Y. (UPI)—The world heavyweight title fight between champion Floyd Patterson and challenger Ingemar Johansson was ordered postponed this afternoon when steady rainfall turned the Yankee Stadium fight scene into a muddy bowl.

Officials said the fight would be held at 7:30 p.m. p.d., tomorrow, if weather permits.

By JACK CUDDY

NEW YORK (UPI)—Possible thunderstorms are predicted for the Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johansson heavyweight title fight tonight, but promoter Bill Rosensohn insists, "the fight will go on if I have to wait till midnight."

The only thing that can possibly postpone the Yankee Stadium bout until Friday is a "persistent deluge," Rosensohn declared.

THE INTERNATIONAL 15-rounder between champion Patterson and challenger Johansson of Sweden is scheduled to start at 10:30 p.m. (e.s.t.).

Speedy Patterson of Rociville Centre, N.Y., became a longer favorite today at 5-1, as the odds jumped from 4-1. He was "even money" that the bout doesn't last eight complete rounds, regardless of the winner, and 11-5 that it doesn't last 15.

PATTERSON, MAKING his fifth defense of the crown, claims he is eager to win impressively over the unbeaten Swede, champion of Europe. Such a victory would help dispel any suspicions that he may be a "cheese" champion.

Handsome, burly Johansson claimed all-out determination to win the championship heroically and prove that those of his countrymen who had branded him a coward after the 1952 Olympics were ignoble liars.

IF HE BEATS Patterson, he would become the first Swedish-born world champion in any division, and the first foreign heavy world-champion since giant Primo Carnera of Italy lost the title to Max Baer in 1934.

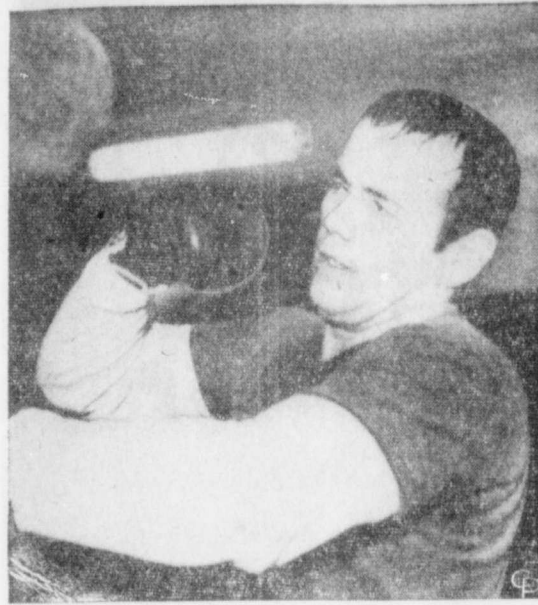

There will be no home-television; but the fight will be radio-broadcast to homes by ABC. The Teleprompter Corp. will send the bout by closed-circuit TV to 170 theaters and arenas in 135 cities, where 550,000 seats are available. Advance sales indicate the gross seat receipts will approximate $1,400,000.

The fight will also be carried by ABC-Radio at 7:30 p.m. p.d.

COLONY, CWTC VIE IN DSL TEST

League - leading Mexican Colony, who knocked out an 18-5 victory over the Desert Sun - Chi last night to keep their perfect Desert Softball League mark intact open second round play at 8 p.m., tonight, against a reviving California Water and Telephone Company team.

The Phonemen, who haven't won a game this year, lost by 2-1 to Coachella Valley Savings and his own in registering the victory. The first game was 0-0 until the last of the third when CVSL bunched four hits - by Leslie Neilson, Bill Eans, Bruno Di Grandi and Tom Every - and scored its two runs.

The Phonemen came back in the seventh inning with a walk to Jerry McDonald and a triple by Norm Johanson to score their lone run.

THE SECOND GAME started well but lack of pitching (combined with lack of fielding) cost the Chi-Sun heavily.

The Colony scored one run in the first frame, then jumped on the Chi-Sun pitchers for five runs in the second, eight in the third, one in the fourth and three in the fifth.

The Chi-Sun squeezed a run home in the first inning - which made the contest 1-1 at the time - but didn't score again until the fifth when they registered four more scores.

DODGERS TO FACE PHILS, ROBERTS

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The Philadelphia Phillies send Robin Roberts to the mound tonight in an attempt to win their first game of the year at the Coliseum against the third-place Los Angeles Dodgers.

The Dodgers, boasting something old, and something new in the way of hitting power, tamed the Phillies again Wednesday night 9-6, thanks to Wally Moon's sixth-inning homer with a man on base.

LOS ANGELES MANAGER Walt Alton gave the nod to Don Drysdale, a difficult young man in the coliseum at night for National League batters, to oppose Roberts.

Drysdale, seeking his eighth win against five losses, has permitted only two runs in the last two games he pitched here.

THE DODGERS HAVE five men hitting above .300 supporting Alton's optimism for a pennant bid in his club's second year in Los Angeles. Veterans Duke Snider, Gil Hodges, Wally Moon, and Jim Gilliam as well as second-year man Don Demeter all are over the magic figure at this count.

In other major league action, the Athletics downed the Yankees, 4-3; the Senators whipped the White Sox, 4-2; Baltimore beat Cleveland, 7-4, and the Red Sox beat the Tigers, 4-2 in other A. L. games.

MILWAUKEE RETAINED its two-game lead in the National League with a 4-0 win over St. Louis in a game cut to seven innings because of rain; San Francisco nipped Pittsburgh, 4-3, and Cincinnati blanked Chicago, 5-0.

Sleepy Sweden Will Hear Fight At 3 a.m., Friday

STOCKHOLM (UPI)—Sweden planned mass insomnia tonight to see if national hero Ingemar Johansson wins, loses, or draws with Floyd Patterson in their world heavyweight championship bout in New York.

The time difference means that the broadcast of the bout begins here at 3 a.m. Friday morning. The midnight sun means that it will be pretty light by that time, but the nation would gladly sit up in darkness to hear the outcome of the fight.

Despite the high pitch of interest, the state-run Swedish radio is pretending the fight doesn't exist. It frowns on boxing as a "cruel sport" and will not broadcast fights, not even this one. Swedes will hear it anyway from Radio Luxembourg.

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

Tears Flow as Toots Shor Closes

By OSCAR FRALEY NEW YORK (UPI)—It was a night of Scotch and soda — and years and tears.

Nineteen years of them, and every night was New Year's Eve.

CARL SANDBURG wrote an epic about somebody who was "as hard as steel and as soft as a drifting fog."

He could have been talking about a big fat China-looking guy named Toots Shor. Tuesday night Toots closed his saloon—a hang-out for saints and sinners, boxers and businessmen, actors and the acquisitive — to make way for a new building.

TOOTS CRIED. So did a lot of other tough guys. People like Johnny Broderick, a hard rock Broadway detective, Jack Dempsey, the all-time tiger of the prize ring. And John Wayne, the guy they call "The Duke" who stayed around till the last bottle was empty and the last glass was broken.

They were all there — Don Ameche, the stage's Jim Barton, Detroit's passe Spike Briggs, Frank Coniff, Bob Considine, Fred Corcoran, and Walter Cronkite.

THEY TALKED of the night 19 years ago when Toots opened the door, reached in his pocket and threw the last change across the street in a gesture which was to bring him $1,500,000 almost two decades later.

"That night, Corcoran called me, Ben Hogan, Byron Nelson, Sam Snead, and Jug McSpaden," recalled Jimmy Demaret, "and said, 'Let's go to Shor's.' I said, 'Why go all the way to the seashore, when we can eat here in New York.'"

THEY WERE ALL there... John Daly, Dom DiMaggio, Jay C. Flippen, Ford Frick, Tom Gallery, Hy Gardner, Bill Gargan and Jackie Gleason.

Also... Claude Harmon, Ned Irish, Lou Little, Sid Luckman, Johnny Lujack, Jack Mara, Shelby Mayfield, Bud Palmer, Gabe Paul, Toney Penna, Red Smith, Horace Stoneham, Dan Topping, Earl Wilson, Craig Wood, and Bill Zeckendorf.

THEY RECALLED the night that Toots opened the joint. Eddie Duchin, the piano feller, gave Shor a blank check. With it, Toots established his credit. Once established, he gave the same check back. In fond memory, a few weeks later Jimmy Conzelman of the Chicago Cardinals wanted to play some tin pen piano. Toots sent out for a piano, and the party lasted seven days.

PALM SPRINGS WATER COSTS LESS America has come a long way since the day of the long-handled pump, and it has taken millions of man-hours of work, plus millions upon millions of dollars to establish the modern, public water systems in use today. Here in Palm Springs, in the heart of one of the most arid of deserts, the transformation from desert to lush playground has been little short of a miracle of engineering planning and accomplishment. Despite the costly obstacles that had to be overcome, water rates in Palm Springs are surprisingly low in comparison with other California communities. Through careful budgeting and judicious use of new procedures and equipment Palm Springs Water Co. has been able to answer higher labor and material costs with an 8% lower rate than in 1940! Olmedo to Face Indian Ace in Third Round at Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England (UPI)—Alex Olmedo must prove his right to be top-seeded in the Wimbledon tennis championships today against the man who handed him a surprising defeat less than a week ago — Ramanathan Krishnan of India.

Krishnan whipped Olmedo, 8-6, 6-1, last Friday in the semi-final round of the London Grass Courts tournament and their clash in the third round of men's singles here was expected to highlight a program today that includes matches in almost every section.

mixed program including both singles and doubles play in the men's and women's divisions, with matches from different rounds complicating the picture. Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, Olmedo's running mate on the U.S. Davis Cup team, also was listed for third-round action but was expected to have a much easier time against Jan Leschly of Denmark.

Local Girl Honored at Girls' State

Mary Lindenstein of Palm Springs was elected County Tax Collector and Assessor for the mythical county of Kelsey at Davis, California where she and 421 other California high school girls are attending Girls State. Sponsored by Palm Springs Unit 519 and Desert Hot Springs Unit 763 American Legion Auxiliary, Mary is also City Editor of the city of Sierra.

Thirteen mythical California cities and four mythical counties have been set up on the University of California campus at Davis, where this year's Girls State is being held.

Sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, Girls State brings together the outstanding girls in the Junior class from High Schools throughout the state. In a practical preparation for adult citizenship, Girls State brings together representatives from small and large schools, from the rural areas and the metropolitan areas.

In a practical preparation for adult citizenship Girls State citizens draw up platforms for two mythical parties, and campaign to elect officers to city, county and state positions.

The basic unit of organized society is the community or city level and these young people are busy circulating petitions for election to City offices.

Toastmistress Council Installs New Officers at Fontana

Installation of officers was the highlight of the regular meeting of Council No. 8, Southwest Region of International Toastmistress Clubs at Harold's Charcoal Broiler in Fontana, Saturday.

Mrs. Muriel Bryant, Monrovia, newly elected Supervisor of the Southwest Region, was installing officer. Officers for 1959-1960 are: Mrs. Gladys Ingersoll, chairman, Arlington; Mrs. Lola Hemingway, 1st vice chairman, Desert Hot Springs; Mrs. Clara Brownlee, 2nd vice chairman, Joshua Tree (Oro y Azul Club); Mrs. Jayne Myers, secretary, Indio (Dateland Club); and Mrs. Pauline Wade, treasurer, Las Vegas, Nevada.

The Past Chairman pin of International Toastmistress Clubs was presented to Mrs. Frances Scinto, retiring Council Chairman, Ontario, Fontana Valley Club, by Mrs. Bryant.

THE CERNY TWINS, Linda and Martha, on right, celebrated their birthdays with a cooling off swim party at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oldrich Cerny on Paseo Dorotea. The parents came to Palm Springs from Switzerland, but the little girls were born here. (Desert Sun Photo).

Cerny Twins Celebrate on Birthday

The twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Oldrich Cerny of 982 Paseo Dorotea, Martha and Linda, were feled on their third birthday, when their mother arranged a party for them at the family home.

Martha, who has straight, red hair, and curly-haired, blonde Linda are not identical twins and have little resemblance to each other, but both thought that being three years old is a gay thing.

Their parents came to Palm Springs four years ago so the little girls are native Americans, born here.

The little guests arrived at the party in swim suits and much of the fun centered around the wading pool in the backyard of the Cerny home. There were popples and soft drinks at the morning party, and each child received an individual ice cream cake with a candle on it.

Guests included Paul, Pamela and Patty Milkie, Bruce, Linda and Mary Brinkley, Elizabeth Mason. A special guest was Miss Pamela Mashburn.

Six Seconds for Exercise Can Tighten up Flabby Muscles

For the next six seconds, try this. Suck in your stomach—hold it while you count up to six—then relax.

Health authorities say exercises like this one, taken every day, can do you more good than strenuous weekend workouts. The July Reader's Digest lists several of these painless, "six-second exercises," which you can do almost anywhere. Among them are these:

1. Stretch. You can do this lying down, by stretching your arms overhead till you feel the pull down to your waist; standing, by pushing your back against a wall until you touch from head to heels forward.

2. Expand your chest. Take several deep breaths and see how far you can stretch your belt. This tightens stomach muscles and increases your breathing capacity.

3. Flex your arms. TV Western hero Hugh O'Brian presses a clenched fist into his palm whenever he stands talking to someone. Opening and closing the hands is another unobtrusive way to build muscle strength.

4. Bend your legs by squatting, climbing or walking. Charles F. Kettering of General Motors used to climb stairs—two flights up and three down—rather than wait for the elevator. The exercise helped him stay active until his death at the age of 82.

5. Firm your muscles. TV star Dave Garraway keeps his arm and torso muscles tight by flipping a golf club or an umbrella with the heavy side away from him. Bouncing on a hard chair will do wonders for "secretarial spread."

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Board of Supervisors of the County of Riverside has hereby offered for sale and will grant by ordinance to the highest bidder, two franchises described as follows on the terms and conditions contained in this notice and as are specified in proposed Ordinance No. 436 on file in the office of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors:
A non-exclusive franchise for a period of 25 years to construct, operate and maintain a television antenna cable service, together with all necessary appurtenances as may be required to operate and maintain said service along, under and across the public highways and other public places within the unincorporated area of the County of Riverside and the same now or may hereafter exist, for transmitting and distributing electrical impulses and signals for television purposes; namely, to produce reproductions of sights and sounds in combination to the residents of the unincorporated area of the County of Riverside.

Sealed bids in writing will be received for said franchise up to 10 o'clock on the 27th day of July, 1959, and at the time above mentioned the Board of Supervisors of the County of Riverside and all sealed bids will be opened. Any bids must be for the payment of a stated sum in lawful money of the United States and the said franchise will be struck off, sold and awarded to the highest bidder provided that at the time of the opening of said bids, any responsible bidder present or represented, may bid for said franchise a sum not less than ten per cent (10%) above the highest sealed bid therefor, and said bid may be raised not less than ten per cent (10%) by any other responsible bidder and said bidding may so continue until the franchise shall be finally struck off, sold and awarded to the highest bidder therefor by the Board of Supervisors.

Each sealed bid shall be accompanied with cash or a certified check payable to the County Treasurer of the County of Riverside, for the full amount of such bid and no sealed bid shall be considered unless said cash or check is enclosed therewith; provided, however, that if the successful bidder is an individual, the successful bidder shall deposit at least ten per cent (10%) of the bid with the Clerk of the County of Riverside before said franchise shall be struck off to him. If the successful bidder shall fail to make such deposit immediately, then and in that case, his bid shall not be received and shall be considered as void, and the franchise shall then be again offered for sale to the bidder who shall make the highest cash bid therefor, subject to the same conditions as to deposit as above mentioned. Said procedure shall be held until each franchise is struck off, sold and awarded to a bidder who shall make the necessary deposit of at least ten per cent (10%) of the amount of his bid therefor as herein provided.

Each successful bidder shall deposit with the County Clerk of the County of Riverside, within twenty-four (24) hours after the acceptance of his bid, the remaining ninety per cent (90%) of the amount thereof, and in case he or it shall fail to do so, then the said deposit theretofore made shall be forfeited, and the award of the franchise shall be set aside and no further proceedings for a sale of the franchise shall be had unless it is re-advertised and again offered for sale in the manner hereinbefore provided.

The franchise of each franchise, its successors or assigns, during the life of the franchise, pay annually to the County Treasurer of the County of Riverside, in lawful money of the United States, and in the manner provided by law, two per cent (2%) of the gross annual receipts of the franchise within the County of Riverside, but no percentage shall be paid for the five years succeeding the date of the franchise, but thereafter such percentage shall be paid annually, and

IN THE event said payment is not made, the franchise shall be forfeited; provided, further, that the franchise shall be a renewal of the right already in existence, or shall cover a system already constructed, the payment of said percentage of gross receipts shall begin at once.
Each franchise shall file a corporate return to be approved by the Board of Supervisors running to the County of Riverside in the penal sum of $1.00, the highest bidder shall file a true and correct copy of the same, and perform each and every term and condition of the franchise, and in case of any breach of condition of such bond, the whole amount of the penal sum thereof named shall be taken and deemed to be liquidated damages and shall be recoverable from the principal and surety on the bond upon said bond. Said bond shall be filed with the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors within five (5) days after the franchise is awarded to the franchisee. A cash deposit in the same amount may be made in lieu of said bond.

SAUND URGES GRADUATES TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF AID

Congressman D. S. Saund today urged high school graduates to "take full advantage" of educational opportunities offered by the National Defense Education Act.

Congressman Saund said the two colleges in his 21st Congressional District are participating in the act which provides tuition loans for students who would otherwise be financially unable to secure college-level education.

BOTH THE UNIVERSITY of California at Riverside and La Sierra Colleges have secured allotments for student loans, in amounts totalling more than $75,000.

Under terms of the federal education act, eligible students may receive loans for a maximum of $1,000 annually or a total of $5,000 for any one student.

LOANS MUST BE repaid 11 years after graduation and up to 50 per cent of the loan may be cancelled if the borrower becomes a full-time teacher in a public elementary or secondary school, Saund reported.

"I urge the young men and women of Riverside and Imperial Counties, who are prevented from going to college for financial reasons, to take full advantage of the opportunity afforded by this remarkable program for student assistance," the Congressman said.

SAUND, WHO pointed out that less than one-half of the current crop of high school graduates will attend college, advised students to apply at the participating colleges of their choice for this federal aid. Applications are now being received at colleges throughout the county for the 1960 academic year. June 30 is the deadline for 1960 applicants, Saund said.

OTHER SOUTHLAND colleges participating in the loan program include the University of Redlands, San Bernardino Valley College, Chaffey Junior College, La Verne College, California Western University, San Diego Junior College, San Diego State College and the University of California at La Jolla.

The student loans are also offered at California Institute of Technology, the University of California at Los Angeles, the University of Southern California, and other colleges throughout Southern California.

Split-Vote Property Purchase Is Held Up

The absence of Supervisor Paul Anderson this week appeared to throw a monkey wrench in proceedings for purchase of a Lemon Street property approved by a split vote of the board of supervisors May 11, temporarily at least.

Supervisors George Berkey and Curtis Chamberlain had voted with Anderson in favor of the purchase, with Supervisors Fred McCall and William Jones dissenting.

LAST WEEK THE board routinely consummated the purchase by the same vote. Consequently, Art Mumper, Riverside realtor representing the sellers, brought the deed to the board this week.

"Didn't the action we took last week button it all up?" asked Supervisor Berkey. It apparently did, except for acceptance of the deed.

Berkey's motion to accept the deed resulted in a two to two vote, so it was "lost."

IN PRESENTING the owner's offer to sell the property May 11, Mumper stated, "If the escrow is closed and he receives his money by June 15, 1959, he will sell for $32,000, but the longer he holds the property the more his investment increases, and his price."

County Counsel Ray T. Sullivan reminded the board of the June 15 deadline already past.

"I hope he backs out in the meantime (before Anderson re-majority in favor of the purchase!" commented McCall.

"GIVE THE PEOPLE SOMETHING BETTER AT A PRICE, AND ON TERMS THEY CAN AFFORD"

In our last week's message we brought out the fact that as builders we were making our contribution to the building of Palm Springs through providing year round jobs. Year round jobs attract permanent, responsible citizens who are the life blood of any successful community.

We gave as our formula for success "Give the people something better at a price, and on terms they can afford." In our case this means better homes at the lowest possible prices and the easiest of terms. What makes a home better? First, its location. Second, its design, and third, the quality of workmanship that goes into every phase of its construction.

Our company has always been well-known for the outstanding appearance of the homes it builds. These represent the finest effort of some of America's most outstanding architects. The awards they have won are most convincing evidence that they represent a fresh, new concept in modern home design.

We plan our developments to be integrated communities of individual estates serving their owners in the most desirable fashion. The location of these developments is selected with the utmost care having in mind the requirements of the home owners to be served.

The owner of one of our estate homes always finds himself in good company for we build the kind of homes that attract the highest type of people so each development becomes a community of high class citizens tending towards a bigger and stronger Palm Springs.

Last, but not least in importance, we make it possible for people to own these homes without straining their budgets or capacity to pay. An unbearable mortgage is not conducive to the proper enjoyment of a home. (We are still maintaining 25 year, 6% loans.)

Our homes range in price just as they range in location, the value of the land on which they are built determining to a great extent the size and cost of the house. However, from the standpoint of style, quality and comfort our least expensive home is worthy of the most discriminating and demanding home owner for truly, it is "something better."
